The world's property market
Building global opportunities

6-9 March 2012
Palais des Festivals - Cannes - France

With 20'000 attendees, MIPIM is the largest international real estate show organized every year in Cannes. "It is certainly the best place to obtain a full overview of innovative developments in property investment and introduce our projects in the South Eastern Europe to experienced investors" said Simon Piggott, Director of the SEE Property Fund.

Marin le Corre, Managing Director of the SEE Property Fund, said "We are proud to have been invited once again to such prestigious show which will allow us to gain higher visibility and help us to introduce our latest projects to the right qualified investors." and "We will be pleased to give our market view within the current economical situation, as we believe that there are considerable opportunities now existing in South Eastern Europe due to the fact that this market is mostly non correlated".

Several managers of the SEE Property Fund will attend MIPIM to forge new partnerships with leading global investors.

Please contact us if you want to attend the presentation on Thursday March 8th at 10am.
